Recommendation of Louise McLeavey

The decision I made to sign up with Louise is one I will never regret. I first met Louise online and was impressed by her use of new Social Media (eg. Twitter) as part of her marketing strategy. She was kind enough to offer me some free advice as I struggled with another agency, and when that contract expired after three collapsed sales, I had no hesitation in signing up with Louise and Harcourts.

From the outset, Louise was completely honest, friendly and professional, offering sound and practical advice in what was a difficult market after the Canterbury earthquakes. At a point where I was almost ready to give up on selling my home, Louise's fresh and enthusiastic approach was much appreciated, and her efforts on my behalf paid off with an offer within the first two weeks that was well above my expectations.

While negotiations continued, Louise and her assistant Kelly were always available to offer their support, friendship and advice, through to and beyond settlement, and I was very happy and grateful with the final outcome.

I would have no hesitation in recommending Louise and the Harcourts team to anyone considering the sale of their property, and I wish her all the best in her career.

I am happy for new clients to contact me for a verbal reference at any time.
