Please find below my / our recommendation of Louise McLeavey:

From my first meeting with Louise her obvious passion for and dedication to her chosen career stood out. She responded quickly to my invitation to talk over selling my TC3 home and following helpful discussion around the alternatives I decided on a Deadline Sale knowing that Louise both accepted my decision and would give of her best toward making this happen. In all stages of the process I was well supported by the Team (thank you Kelly) and was kept informed of progress. Our agreed marketing package was promptly actioned, Open Homes professionally implemented and all possible purchasers followed up without delay to arrive at a good outcome for all. I really enjoyed Louise's rare package of high energy, effective communication and marketing skills, and total commitment to the task in hand - all so thoroughly infused with welcome good humour. Thank you Louise and Kelly! 😊
